The University of Kentucky lost their third game of the season as Michigan State defeated them 66-20. This was the main upset because Kentucky defeated them in previous encounter at Lexington.

Breckinridge Plays One Of Season's Best Games To Beat Mt. Sterling Team 60 to 34

By DON MILLER
Mt. Sterling was really out for revenge last Friday night when they played Breckinridge, but instead of getting revenge, they lost much of their prestige in Eastern Kentucky basketball decline. Since the game was played in Mt. Sterling and it was a whining defeat for the Trojans, the game puts a bar over Mt.
Sterling's record. The Trojans just couldn't hit Friday, whereas the Eagles, after the first ten minutes, hit almost every time they shot.

It was a different story when the teams met in Morehead. Both teams were hot then, and Breck barely eked out a 31-30 victory.
Allen led off with a long shot for Breck which was matched by Thompson. Banks made a jump shot good, but it was matched by Henry. Then Battson got a considerable and a free throw. After that, the Eagles pulled away to a safe margin, with Banks, Banks and Allen doing most of the accing. Both teams started out rapidly, and the score at the quarter was 18-14 in favor of Breckinridge.
The Eagles led at the half 28-18, at the three-quarter mark 46-24, and finally 60-34.
It was two teams here to meet in the regional tournament.
You can be sure the Trojans will make a real game of it, but the Eagles are confident they can repel Mt. Sterling for a third time.

Allen and Banks led the victors with 18 and 14 respectively.
While Henry paced the losers with 13. The Trojans' last hope of victory faded when Thompson faded out at the last of the third quarter.

The Breck Junior High team barely defeated the Mt. Sterling Juniors 14-12. Priding again took scoring honors Eagles with 18, but Henry of Mt. Sterling kept pace with him and also got ten.
Vaughan was a close third with eight.

Both Breck teams were boosted along by the extremely large Morehead crowd which made a very effective cheering squad.

Eaglets Defeat Owingsville In Polo Match

The Breckinridge Eagles won their 14th game of the season last Wednesday night in the College gymnasium as they defeated the Owingsville Bobcats, 42-31.

The game was an Indiana Paralympic Benefit Game, yet one of the smallest crowds of the se-son witnessed the game.

Since the Eagles' went into the game heavy favorites, they just looked along, and turned in one of their poorest performances of the year.

Outside of the second quarter, the Bobcats kept pace with Egle-buck all times, but control of the rebounds kept Breck in the game, since Thomas was the only one with any rebounding for Owingsville.

Breck led at the quarter 11-7, 24-10 at the half, 31-20 at the third quarter, and finally, 42-31.
Thomas took scoring honors with seven field goals and two free throws for a total of 18. Hinchman was best for the winners with 21.

Mr. Glenn says that the new Revenue Act is in many particulars different from the laws previously in effect and that the many changes made cannot be explained in a short notice, but that his department is familiar with the laws and is being sent here to be of real service to the taxpayers of this country.

The service is absolutely free. Collector Glenn urges the taxpayers of this country to use the department and let him help them with their income tax problems.
